Remarks

Ready for the new owners to move in. The private foyer leads into the living room, which has been updated with tile flooring. Turnkey furnishings will make your new Florida nest easy to enjoy. The updated kitchen with granite counters and wood cabinets is light and bright. It's open to the dining room, which has lots of windows to let in the light! It also has a door to the side patio, which makes it very convenient to dine al fresco! There's space for tables and chairs and umbrellas, as well as your grill. The bedrooms each have their own bathroom for the convenience of owners and guests. The updating and the walk-in closet on the primary bedroom will allow you to be organized quickly. A linen closet in the hallway is accessible to both bedrooms. There is a separate laundry room with extra storage space. The carport serves as a spot to meet and greet your neighbors in addition to keeping your car shaded. This is very friendly and active over-55 community. The monthly calendar shows planned activities almost every day. The heated community pool has lots of deck space, tables and chairs for friendly card games around pool. The clubhouse has a full kitchen, providing great space for parties and meeting. There's a library wall and nuzzle table, as well as space for meeting the
